TITLE IX COORDINATOR ROLE IN THE COMPLAINT PROCESS

Formal Complaint

- Must ensure that all formal complaints are investigated
- A formal complaint is signed by a Complainant or Title IX Coordinator alleging sexual harassment against a Respondent, requesting an investigation
- Complainant must be a current or prospective student or employee
- Defer to Complainant's wishes as to whether to pursue an investigation
- Title IX Coordinator can sign a complaint to initiate an investigation if they determine that not pursuing would be deliberately indifferent or that not pursuing a claim would be harmful to the campus community

Complainant

- Must be alleged victim unless parent or legal guardian has a legal right to act on behalf
- Note that any person may report sex discrimination, including sexual harassment to the Title IX Coordinator
- Person reporting does not have to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sex discrimination or sexual harassment
- Only a complainant may file a formal complaint that initiates a Title IX grievance procedure

Complaint Dismissal

- The institution must dismiss a Formal Complaint if:
 - Allegations do not meet the definition of sexual harassment
 - Did not occur in the institution's education program or activity against a person in the United States
- The institution may dismiss a Formal Complaint if:
 - Complainant informs the Title IX Coordinator in writing that the complainant desires to withdraw the formal complaint or allegations therein
 - Respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by the institution
 - If specific circumstances prevent the institution from gathering sufficient evidence to reach a determination.

Advisors

- Parties have the right to select an advisor during an investigation and hearing
- Can be an attorney, but does not have to be
- If the Complaint goes to a live hearing, the parties must have an advisor
- If the party does not have an advisor, the institution must provide, without charge, an advisor of the institution's choice
- An institution-appointed advisor is not required to be an attorney
- Only advisors may conduct cross-examination of witnesses
